Strategic Disaster Risk Management and Leadership Program

2 – 14 MARCH 2020, 8:30 AM to 5:30 PM • AIM Campus, Makati City

Program Overview
The SDRMLP puts emphasis on the management and leadership aspects that will enable participants to (i) analyze and evaluate considerations and implications of disasters and crises, (ii) design strategic interventions and develop implementable plans, (iii) manage and mobilize diverse functions, teams and skills for results.

The program is designed to enhance the participants’ problem-solving, decision-making and team-mobilization skills especially in volatile or extreme contexts and conditions.

Program Objectives
1. Analyze and evaluate considerations and implications of disasters and crises
2. Design strategic interventions and develop implementable plans
3. Lead and mobilize diverse functions, teams and skills for results

Program Outcomes
1. Enhanced knowledge on the latest concepts of Disaster Risk Reduction and Management
2. Enhanced capacity to develop evidence-based plans
3. Improved skills on managing teams and personal development

Program Content
1. Types of Disasters
2. DRRM Frameworks
3. Climate Change concepts
4. Disaster Risk Governance and Management
5. Dept of Disaster Resilience
7. Financial Risk Management
8. Monitoring and Evaluation
9. Digital Innovations for Disasters
10. Strategic Leadership
11. Incident Command System
12. Critical Thinking

Program Teaching
1. Lecture Discussions
2. Group Work
3. Field Work
4. Simulation

Program Output
1. Hazard and Risk Mapping
2. Business Continuity Plan

Who Should Attend
Executives, leaders, managers, head of departments, officers, DRRM professionals and practitioners involved in Disaster Risk and Reduction Management, from Public and Private sectors, companies involved in the Supply Chain of Disaster Risk Management, and private sector organizations needing a risk preparedness and reduction strategy or business continuity plan

Faculty Profile
Dr. Miguel Dorotan is an experienced Public Health practitioner with a history of working in humanitarian affairs within the Philippines and overseas. He is skilled in Health Emergency and Disaster Management, Health Systems Research and Program Management having worked with Local Government Units, Department of Health, Alliance for Improving Health Outcomes Inc. (AIHO), Save the Children International and World Health Organization. He worked during Super Typhoon Yolanda/Haiyan, Nepal Earthquake, Marawi Crisis, and Rohingya Refugee Crisis (Bangladesh) among others. He has a Master of Science (MSc) in International Public Health focused on Humanitarian Assistance from Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine (Liverpool, UK) under the Chevening Scholarship, Doctor of Medicine from University of Santo Tomas (Manila, Philippines) and Bachelor of Arts Major in Behavioral Science from the University of the Philippines Manila. Dr Dorotan also a visiting lecturer in Bicol University College of Medicine, University of Santo Tomas Faculty of Medicine and Surgery and a resident fellow of the Asian Institute of Management.

For inquiries and reservations, please contact:
School of Executive Education and Lifelong Learning
+632 8992 4011 • execed@aim.edu • www.aim.edu

Eugenio López Foundation Bldg.
123 Paseo de Roxas, Makati City
Philippines 1229

aim.edu