SCHOOL OF EXECUTIVE EDUCATION
AND LIFELONG LEARNING

Innovating Policy Making for Effective Behavioral Change

Bringing innovation into policy making to increase impact output

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The course is designed to provide an understanding of the intersection of innovation and policymaking. It will explore how innovation has influenced the development of policies and how technology can be harnessed to support policy-making processes. The course will also focus on how policies can be developed to promote innovation and support technological advancements.

Given the dynamism of policymaking and the need for policymakers to keep up with the changes, there is a need to continuously evolve the policymaking process, including data gathering, assessments, consultations, behavioral changes, and measuring of key performance indices that can help ensure effectiveness of policy measures.

Participants will be exposed to policymaking principles as utilized in the private and public spheres, how innovation can be used as a tool to improve the policymaking process, and what the future holds for policymakers.

Through a combination of interactive sessions, case studies, group discussions, and lectures from subject matter experts, the Course aims to create new generations of policymakers that can create more effective policies that will shape the behavior of the future.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, students will be able to

1. Understand the role of innovation in policymaking and redesign the process by which policies are crafted, implemented, and monitored;
2. Analyze how technology can support the policymaking processes and integrate the same;
3. Identify the challenges in policymaking in the age of rapid technological advancements and assess challenges using innovation and design thinking frameworks to create impactful solutions; and
4. Develop skills in designing policies that promote innovation and support the use of emerging technologies in policymaking.

PROGRAM FACULTY

Atty. Jocel Isidro S. Dilag

Adjunct Faculty
Asian Institute of Management

Atty. Jocel Isidro S. Dilag is a lawyer-innovator who acts as a strategic advisor and enabler for startups, progressive businesses, especially manufacturer-exporters from the creative industry for more than a decade. His professional involvements include leading the tax and tech practice of Leflegis, an organization he co-founded with lawyers dedicated to upholding the fundamental principles of democracy, continuously disrupting the legal landscape by innovating the way legal services are delivered while maintaining the integrity of the practice's principles.

He is also a co-founder of Bughaw Creative Collective - a startup making waves in the creative industry by becoming go-to strategic partner of Filipino Creative Enterprises for their development, expansion, and sustainability through data driven, tech-enabled, and innovative business solutions. Bughaw also houses its own research institute, BRIDGE CREATIVES, that is trailblazing the utilization of data science, through market research and analysis, made by Filipinos, for Filipinos.

Atty. Dilag is also a Senior Lecturer at the UP College of Law, teaching commercial, property, tax, and international law; a Business Legal Mentor for several startup incubators, and an expert facilitator of corporate trainings, seminars, and interactive workshops both here and abroad. He is proactive in policy making, initiating dialogues with government institutions, private associations, and business owners, crafting strategies that contribute to the grand goal of uplifting the lives of Filipinos through a fair and just economic playing field.

He credits the foundation of his momentum to the University of the Philippines where he obtained his Juris Doctor degree and his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree, where he graduated with latin honors (as cum laude). It was at the University where he started his passion for finance, tax, and emerging technologies. He then furthered his expertise at the Asian Institute of Management (AIM), under the Master of Science in Innovation and Business program, where he graduated as valedictorian, and a recipient of the Highest Distinction Honors. As an international educational institution, AIM served as his sandbox, enabling him to develop and test his newfound frameworks for business assessment, risk management, and strategy design made for the 4th Industrial Revolution.
